

Nikos Koutsodontis

Born in Athens (Greece) in 1951. Graduated the Hellenic Naval Academy, served most of the career as Naval Officer in submarines and retired from the Navy as Captain.

Worked for the "Hellenic Register of Shipping" as Head of the quality and safety (ISO-ISM) Dept. for two years (1994-1996).

Being the Gen. Manager of Gouvia marina for four years (1996-2000), the first privatized marina in Greece, was appointed as Managing Supervisor of Kalamata marina renovation project held in 1998, and project Manager of the Lefkas marina construction (2000-2002).

Since 2001, he is the General Manager of "K&G Med. Marinas Management S.A." providing management services to 4 marinas in Greece with a total capacity of 2800 berths.

Representative of his company to the IMG (Icomia Marinas Group) as well as Vice President of the Hellenic Marinas Association since 2009.