

Panos Pappas

Mr. Panos Pappas (b.1963), attorney-at-law, member of the PIRAEUS BAR ASSOCIATION, holds a LL.M in Maritime Law from Southampton University and is currently finalises an MBA Course in the Economic University of Athens. He also holds a Law Degree from the Kapodestrian University of Athens and he is also a certified mediator in Greece (TOOLKIT-KEDIP).

Since 2001 he has been legal consul of the stated owned company named “Public Properties Company S.A. (PPCo)” whose objective is to manage and develop the state-owned private property in line with national and economical policy goals and priorities. PPCo, in its current form, is a new company, with new objectives and perspectives, but at the same time it is a company with the accumulated experience know-how and expertise of the three companies that merged in 2011, “Hellenic Tourist Properties S.A”, “Olympic Properties S.A.” and later in 2013 the “Hellenic Public Real-Estate Corporation S.A.”.

Mr. Pappas, due to his maritime background and professional experience, has been involved to all stages of the privatization of the major marinas in Greece, such as the Marina Zea (2003), Flisvos Marina (2003), Faliro (SEF) Marina (2009), Mytilene Marina (2012) and Vouliagmeni Marina (2012). He is currently a member of the Board of Directors of the private companies MARINA ZEA S.A and LAMDA FLISVOS MARINA S.A both greek-based private entities who operate the two (2) major marinas in Attica Greece and since 2011 has been elected as the Treasurer Officer of GREEK MARINAS ASSOCIATION, a non-profitable association created by the major marinas in Greece.

He has extended professional experience in the maritime field and corporate matters as an assistant solicitor in RICHARDS BUTLER, law firm, London (1992-1993) and assistant claims adjuster in LONDON STEAMSHIP OWNERS'S MUTUAL INSURANCE ASSOCIATION, London (1992). Also he has been the legal advisor in EUROPEAN NAVIGATION INC. (1994-2000) a greek owned ship management company and was served as a member of the Board of Directors of EPIRUS A EVE (1994-1997) a company of production and sales “feta” cheese. He participated in several conferences in Greece and abroad.